

NSPCC

→ BIG
B  ARD
GAME
DAY 27 May 2016

It's

playtime

Simply get a stack of board games together and ask colleagues to donate to take part. Or if you want to really raise your game, try some of these extra ideas.

Board game brainteaser

Be the quizmaster and use our downloadable quiz to put your colleagues' board game knowledge to the test.

Dress up

Whether it's Mr Monopoly or Miss Scarlet, encourage colleagues to come to work dressed as their favourite board game characters or pieces for a donation.

Proudly supported by

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

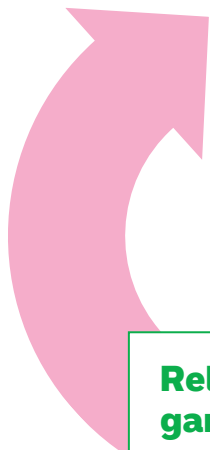

Board game tournament

Organise rounds of games with the grand finale on Big Board Game Day. Play in teams, or as individuals for all the glory. Check out the tournament sheet in this pack.

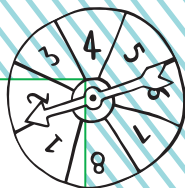

Big Board Game bake off

Hold a cake sale so people can enjoy a sweet treat while they play.

Relay board gaming

Love the longer games, but pushed for time? Get into teams and take a relay approach to playing – switching players after every half an hour.

Matched Giving

Find out if your employer runs a Matched Giving scheme. Lots of companies do, and it could double your total raised! And it's tax efficient for your employer too, so why not suggest it?

Play our sweepstake

Get everyone to guess who using our super sweepstake.

Don't forget to use your Joker card from this pack!

Need any more materials for your event, like extra posters? Visit nspcc.org.uk/BoardGameDay