

NSPCC

Big quiz

Questions

General

- 1 In what decade was Monopoly created?
- 2 In which game might you end up with your face covered in whipped cream?
- 3 Name the three red properties on a London Monopoly board.
- 4 What is the name of the victim in a game of Cluedo?
- 5 How many pieces of pie do you need to collect in a game of Trivial Pursuit?
- 6 On a standard dice, which number is on the opposite side to the number three?
- 7 What's the name of the largest ship piece in a game of Battleship?
- 8 What's the most expensive property on a London edition Monopoly board?
- 9 Which character takes the first turn in Cluedo?
- 10 How much money do you collect when you pass GO in Monopoly?

- 11 Which board game's pieces are all shaped like little cars?
- 12 Name all the weapons in Cluedo
- 13 How many rooms are there in Cluedo?
- 14 Which board game would you associate Bernard, Eric, Frans, Maria and Anita with?
- 15 In the original version of Trivial Pursuit, what category of questions was coloured blue?

Fiendish

- 1 French film director Albert Lamorisse invented which board game?
- 2 What 'game for your whole brain' was the first board game to be sold on Amazon?
- 3 The word 'Jenga' is based on a word meaning 'to build' in which language?
- 4 Which board game was invented by an industrial design student at the University of Illinois in 1962?
- 5 Which game was originally called 'Pretzel'?

Proudly supported by

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR