You're doing something amazing for children

All the hours spent fundraising will help protect more children from abuse and neglect – thank you. Here is how your money makes a difference.

£4

could answer a child's call to Childline offering them advice and support, whatever their worry.

could pay for a trained practitioner for an hour

supporting parents and families in caring for children.

could pay for toys and art materials which children use during therapeutic sessions to explain how they're feeling.

could pay for a trained practitioner

for one day, helping children get back on track following abuse.

£260

could cover the cost for our trained Childline counsellors

to speak to 65 children who reach out for support.

£500

could pay to run the NSPCC Helpline for an average of one hour providing vital help and support to adults concerned about a child's welfare.

£1,600

can pay to recruit, train and support a new Childline volunteer who will support young people who have nowhere else to turn.

£2,500

could help our Schools Service empower children to speak out if they're worried about anything.

£3,750

could fund Childline to run for an average of three hours, giving young people a voice when they have nowhere else to turn.
