What we are doing to help

Visiting schools

In 2019/20, our Speak out. Stay safe. volunteers and staff visited 16 schools and spoke to 3,422 children

With your help, over the next 3 years, we can visit all 68 schools in Kensington and Chelsea

Giving children a voice

On average, a child somewhere in the UK contacts Childline every 25 seconds

In 2019/20 our Childline volunteers delivered almost 240,000 counselling sessions to children and young people

We estimate around 500 of these children lived in Kensington and Chelsea

Supporting the community to change childhoods

We're working with O2 to keep children safe online via our Net Aware tool and online safety advice helpline

Our resources and guidance help coaches, sports clubs and community groups in Kensington and Chelsea keep children safe

We've worked with communities in Kensington and Chelsea to help more parents talk PANTS and keep children safe

Face-to-face support for families

Helping children recover from abuse and working with families to prevent abuse

Services like Letting the Future In help children rebuild their lives

We gather evidence and share the learning so other organisations can help more children in communities like yours

Taking action to protect children

Our helpline responded to almost 69,000 contacts last year from people with concerns about a child's welfare

We made 72 referrals from our helpline to local agencies like the police and children's services

We can only keep doing this with your support. Join us at nspcc.org.uk
