SCHOOL'S OUT for childhood day

£400 could help answer 100 children's calls to Childline.

Remember that final week of school term? Games, movies, no real lessons. Relive it all by hosting your own School's Out events for Childhood Day! Take time to embrace the nostalgia and go back to those end of school days.

Stuck for ideas? Take part in as many of the suggested activities below as you like or choose your own activities that best suit you and your team.

MONDAY

Morning announcements – Spread the word to colleagues about the activities you have planned and start fundraising!

TUESDAY

Tuck shop – Bring in your childhood favourite treats for a nostalgic sugar rush – don't forget your pocket money!

WEDNESDAY

Sports day – Unleash your competitive streak and take part in an office sports day. You could do an egg and spoon race across the office, a scavenger hunt, or office chair racing.

THURSDAY

Art class – Raid your stationary cupboard for spare biro's and draw a self-portrait, followed by a game of 'guess the colleague'.

FRIDAY

Reward time – Treat yourselves to an end of week fundraiser by watching a favourite film, host a childhood-themed quiz, or play games over lunch.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR

Who can raise the most outside of work by Childhood Day? The A* fundraiser could win a prize from the company!
