You're doing something amazing for children.

All the hours spent training and fundraising will help to protect more children from abuse and neglect. And for that, we cannot thank you enough. Here is how your money makes a difference.

could answer a child's call to Childline offering them advice and support whatever their worry.

could pay for a trained practitioner for an hour supporting parents and families in caring for children.

£90

can cover the cost for our Speak out. Stay safe. programme to reach 30 primary school children teaching them to speak out if they're worried.

could pay for a trained practitioner

for one day, helping children get back on track following abuse.

£250

could cover the cost for one of our trained Childline counsellors to speak to 62 children who reach out for support.

£500

could pay to run the helpline service for an average of one hour providing vital help and support to adults concerned about a child's welfare.

£1,600

can pay to recruit, train and support a new Childline volunteer who could go on to support young people who have nowhere else to turn.

£2,300

could recruit and train a Schools Service volunteer who could go on to visit primary school children and teach them how to keep themselves safe from abuse.

£3,750

could fund Childline to run for an average of three hours, giving young people a voice when they have nowhere else to turn.
